WAITING FOR A BREAK IN FIGHT.

There May Be a Change in the Senatorial Battle During the Week.

By GEORGE F. HATTON.

(Special to the Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—"Wolf" has been crying so often and nothing has happened, that to predict now that the present week will witness a change in the Senatorial situation will probably evoke nothing but a smile of incredulity. And yet to those who are on the scene of action and are favored with more opportunities for knowledge than are in the possession of the average individual, it seems certain that the long-threatened action cannot be long delayed and that the next few days will witness a change of front on the part of all the candidates.

There are many circumstances leading up to this. In the first place the investigation is disposed of and by the time Milton Green's account with the House is settled will become but a chapter of the strife that has played its part and is done with; then there is the fact that the candidates can no longer evade the crisis that is resulting from their having so often promised their supporters that they were about to force an issue; and finally there is an increased restlessness on the part of the legislators born of the fact that more than half the session has passed away and the election of a Senator is apparently farther distant than it was the first day the members convened.

The knowledge too that it is almost impossible to make any headway with important legislation is entering into the calculation a good deal, for if things continue on the lines in which they have been traveling in the past, the member will either be detained here for fully eighty days or else they will have to leave Sacramento with their work but half finished. There are many who do not seem to realize that on the second day of March the life of the session proper will have ended; but when that fact is brought home to them by reason of their names being dropped from the payroll there will be some squirming and kicking especially on the part of those whose walk in life does not permit them to live in an expensive town without an income.

There are those who think that all these troubles will be obviated by the calling of an extra session, but every individual who has got that idea under his hat might as well remove it at once for nothing is farther from Governor Fage's mind and the proposition cannot be squelched any too soon.

Apart from the fact that the Governor's ambition is to make his administration economical, there enters into the question the capital that would be created for the Democratic party in the event of an extra sitting, for it would be patent that it had been caused by the wrangling and scandal-mongering of the Republicans themselves whose discussions would therefore be costing the people many a thousand dollars.

While therefore it is conceded by all including the candidates themselves, that a move must soon be made, the question is, who will be the first to call for a new deal. Grant is out to call for a new deal for everyone knows that he has reached the flood-tide of his strength and that his sole resource from now on is a purely defensive one. Bulla and Barnes cannot either be considered in this connection for neither one has lines so bold, that he could summon a vote to himself; but must rather wait for volunteers, while as for Scott, Bard, Estee, Felton, and the other outsiders they are of course simply standing upon the threshold of the arena.

Everything therefore centers upon one individual as the man of the hour—Colonel D. M. Burns. Even his most bitter opponents will not deny that many a vote now being credited daily to his antagonists, stands ready to transfer allegiance to him the moment he says "Come" and it is well known that the only reason he has allowed this strength to remain in abeyance is because he wishes to concede his rival resources from the enemy until such a time as he knows that he has victory within his grasp.

That his plans in this regard are on the eve of materialization is known to those who are admitted to his councils and it is the fact of this evolution that makes everything look as if the political horizon will be considerably cleared before the week is over. The first move will be directed against the Grant column and despite all that has been said and reiterated about the San Diego's forces being pledged to him to the last, it will be found that the signal is given, six and possibly seven of them will break away. Three of them will go to Bulla, two may go to Barnes and the other two scatter among the other candidates. One of them—Marvin—probably going back to George Knight.

The first move to be made by the Colonel does not, therefore call for any actual gain for himself, other than will be obtained by the retrogression of Grant, and his consequent taking a position at the head of the list. Where the best results will be achieved, though, are in the shock it will give to the Grant movement and the awakening of the San Diego's followers to the fact that he is not as strongly entrenched as he has declared himself to be. It is apparent what the outcome of such a revolution will be. The dropping of Bulla, will not want to go down with the sinking ship, for the simple reason that there is no actual reason why they should do so, and the result will be that they will scatter here, there and everywhere, a complete demoralization taking place before many days pass by.

NOTES FROM THE CAMPS OF THE CANDIDATES.

Meantime the customary rumors are being floated one day and denied the next, the latest being the Chronicle's story that Senator Bulla's manager, McKinley and Messers, are down south trying to find a compromise candidate in his place.

"All of which is a bit timely and unequalledly untrue," said Senator Bulla to your correspondent as he chatted on the subject.

The Bulla campaign is being conducted on a straight-forward, mainly lines, for the Senator has repeatedly told those who are voting for him that the moment they are satisfied that there is no possibility of his being elected he does not wish them to consider him in the matter any more. While thoroughly understanding his feelings in this regard, his supporters are well satisfied with the way things stand now, for they are in a better position than they were when the campaign started up, which is more than most of the other candidates can say.

Where Senator Bulla is placing his chief reliance is that if the Senate is to go to the south he, next to Grant, occupies the highest place upon the list, and as it has been so repeatedly and positively declared that Grant cannot possibly be elected, he, in fact, therefore, considers himself at the top of the tree, as far as south of Tehachas is concerned. The knowledge, too, that in the event of the retirement of Grant all Senator Perkins' influence would naturally have to be extended in his behalf is giving Bulla still more confidence, so he sits satisfied in his headquarters, content with the knowledge that if the fight simmers down to a compromise candidate from the south, he, perforce, must be the man.

certain that he could not have played a better campaign card of that description had he planned things that way, for his presence brought his name into general mention again.

Both individually and politically, there can be no questioning Judge Peterson's strength, for the prestige of his term upon the Supreme Bench, added to the position he has occupied in the party for many years past, are potent factors at a time like this. It is of course recognized, though, that he is only a possibility to be considered in the event of a general shuffling of the political cards and the inauguration of a new deal all around.

CONCERNING LEGISLATION AT CAPITOL.

Passing matters of legislation, it should be mentioned that the files are "backed with business" that it has now become a certainty that a large percentage of the measures already introduced can never be reached. So great is this congestion of business that the Republican leaders have announced that despite the necessity of a revision of the codes, it will be absolutely impossible to take up the work of the commissioners this session regardless of the fact that they are ready to submit to the Legislature the result of their labors upon the Civil and Political Codes.

The work has been done in a very thorough manner, and though one but a lawyer can appreciate it properly, still an idea can be obtained of the labors involved when it is brought to the attention that the revision means the collating, editing and arranging of every statute that has been passed since 1873. This meant not only the reworking of all the general laws that have gone into effect since that time, but collating them, investigating the action taken upon them at various times by the Supreme Court, and in fact straightening out what on the face of it appeared a hopeless tangle.

The Commissioners have not attempted to create any new laws, their sole efforts in this regard being the selection of amendments necessary to carry the sense of the context or chapter. In every instance where this has been done or any change, however minute, has been made, an explanatory note has been placed beneath that particular section of the revised Code prepared for the Legislature. The original numbers of the sections have been preserved at the request of attorneys who thought that changing them would mean untold complications as regards decisions, researches and so forth, though the desirability of this has been left to the judgment of the Legislature.

Personally, Commissioner Chamberlain is in favor of re-numbering the Codes and leaving a sufficient margin between each title, part and chapter to allow for the additions that may come in the future. The principal change that has been made in the Civil Code is in the part on corporations, for the vast changes that have taken place in this branch of law during the past twenty-five years are amazing. Then, too, there have been new corporations created that have never been contemplated at the time the Codes of 1873 were arranged, such, for instance, as electric and telephone corporations, of involving specific and important classes.

An important feature the Commissioners have handled as regards these corporations that were created before 1873. As the law reads now, it can be interpreted to mean that they are still governed by the provisions in existence at the time of their creation, but as the Supreme Court has held both ways on that point, the Commissioners have adopted a middle course, giving them until January 1, 1901, to come under our present laws, after which time they will be governed by the Code law except as to their formation and existence.

Then, as regards homesteads, an important change has been made, for the report gives the privilege of creating a homestead upon an interest in land instead of restricting it to individual possession, as at present. An inspection of the report shows careful work throughout, and if the present Commissioners are retained, the Penal Code and Code of Civil Procedure will be disposed of during the coming two years, thus completing the long desired revision of the laws.

There is every possibility, too, that there will be no change in the Commission, for the Board is under the act creating it to be strictly non-partisan and the present Commissioners all have claims to be continued in office outside of the fact that they have already been engaged in the work. First comes Senator Bulla, then Chamberlain, the leader of the Democracy in the House, and finally Shanahan, who did good campaign work for the Republican party by taking the Popular Party away from Maguire. The secretary of the Board is also Secretary Earl Burke.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

In the line of the Code Commissioners' report, but as an independent act, the Assemblyman Chamberlain is endeavoring to pass through the Legislature a bill that will keep the legal paths unobscured in the future. It provides that every general law that reaches the hands of the Judiciary Committee shall be by it collated whenever possible and given its proper number in the Codes, thus doing away with the present system of flooding legislation with special statutes. As regards measures that go to other committees, at those that are favorably reported up to keep their place upon list, but are also to go to the Judiciary Committee for collation, it being compulsory for that body to return them within two days.

Another matter of urgency that he will present is to get into shape the laws governing municipal organizations, for they are in a bad mess at present and create untold complications that could just as well as not be dispensed with. The defining of county boundaries will also be pressed by Chamberlain, for in his researches through the Codes he has found that they are in a shocking condition. A gap exists on one of the boundaries of Yuba county, and down south the western line of Los Angeles county is declared to be the eastern line of San Bernardino county, while the eastern boundary of San Bernardino is given as the western boundary of Los Angeles county, in neither instance no mention being made as to where the boundary line in question runs.

ground for awhile, having been called to San Francisco on business.

Yesterday was about the quietest day of the Senatorial campaign so far. Giant Burns and Bulla were all on the scene, but there were not fifty politicians all told about the "Golden Eagle" until the night trains got in.

The weather here is tolerably cold. The mountains are all gleaming with snow, and the wind that sweeps down from them over the city makes the man without an overcoat feel as if something is missing.

Judge Carpenter has joined the political throng.

MANILA ATTACK WAS INEVITABLE.

Senator Davis Holds Treaty Opponents Responsible.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, February 6.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: Senator Davis, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, is confident the treaty will be ratified. "I cannot see how this result can be otherwise," he said last night. "It has been made perfectly apparent by the attack of Aguinaldo's forces upon the United States at Manila, that what we have asserted from the beginning is true, and that the Philippines have been encouraged to believe by what has taken place in the Senate that no treaty would be made, and that would bind the insurgents."

"That has been the position of the Philippines here from the beginning. From the aspect of our relations to the Philippines there should not have been a moment's delay in the ratification of the treaty, and the events of yesterday prove it."

"By our protocol with Spain our freedom of action was restrained in every way as to territory and military operations. We should have been freed from that restraint at the earliest possible moment. It is very unfortunate that the opponents of the treaty could not see this until its demonstration by an actual attack upon the forces of the United States."

LIQUOR LICENSES.

The application of M. Cosley of East Fourteenth street and Orchard avenue was rejected, as there were not a sufficient number of signers.

The applications of W. H. Sweeney and T. S. Manning of Alhambra were rejected on motion of Supervisor Church. Mr. Church stated that at a previous meeting an application for a license for the same location was objected to by those people who now ask for a license. They gave good reasons why the license should not be granted, and he thought the same objections should stand against the present application.

VON CAPRIVI PASSES AWAY.

German Ex-Chancellor Is Called By Death.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

FRANKFURT, Feb. 6.—General Count Von Caprivi, former Chancellor of Germany, died this morning at Skyon, near Cressen.

(General Von Caprivi was appointed by the present Emperor of Germany to succeed Bismarck, soon after his accession to the throne, as the Iron Chancellor was not subsequently enough to suit Germany's erratic war lord.)

EX-MINISTER BARRETT ON THE PHILIPPINES.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

HONG KONG, Feb. 4.—John Barrett, the former United States Minister to Siam, who is returning to the United States, delivered an address yesterday to an audience composed of British officials and business men, Americans and Filipinos.

Regarding the Philippines, Mr. Barrett urged the necessity of the United States forming an independent protectorate until the ability of the Philippines to stand alone is demonstrated, the United States reserving a strategic naval base, like Subic bay, giving her control of the situation and strengthening her throughout the far East.

Mr. Barrett also declared that the difficulty ahead of the United States had been grossly exaggerated for the purpose of defeating the ratification of the peace treaty with Spain.

NO QUORUM IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 4.—The sixteenth ballot for United States Senator resulted: Quay 1, Jenks 2, Stewart 1. No quorum.

SCARCELY QUORUM IN THE HOUSE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 4.—There was scarcely a quorum in either house this morning when the Legislature was called to order.

In the Assembly, after the introduction of bills, reports of standing committees, etc., had been concluded, the rules were suspended and the third reading of the passage of the bill was delayed until the forenoon with the second reading file.

The following bills were introduced:

HORROR ON A MICHIGAN RAILROAD.

Three Killed in a Passenger Collision.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LANSING, Mich., Feb. 6.—The Chicago and Grand Trunk passenger train No. 1, westbound, plunged full speed into passenger train No. 6, eastbound, while the latter was standing at the station here today. The following were killed: ENGINEER FAIRBANKS of the westbound train.

EDWARD REID of Lenox, Mich., mail clerk, westbound train.

THOMAS STULL of Lansing, mail clerk, eastbound.

The injured: Engineer Nathan of the eastbound train, several ribs broken; Mail Clerk Charles Stambaugh of Lansing, leg broken; Burns of Lapeer, passenger on eastbound train, leg broken; R. T. White of Lapeer, passenger, eastbound train, ankle bruised; English, South Bay, Ont., slightly bruised.

The locomotives were both badly wrecked, and the mail cars remained on the tracks.

The two fast trains ordinarily pass each other at Lapeer, fifteen miles east of this place, but the engine in this case, the eastbound train being behind time, were to pass at Lansing City.

There was apparently a confusion of orders somewhere.

Engineer Thomas Fairbanks of No. 1, was killed by being struck by a mail car as he was jumping from his cab. His fireman, who remained in the cab, is uninjured.

It is thought that Engineer Fairbanks of train No. 1, which should have stopped before reaching the switch, mistook a freight train on a siding for the passenger train, and did not stop in time. The indications are that train No. 1 was responsible for the accident.

LIBERAL PARTY HAS NEW LEADER.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—Instead of one soap trust being formed by the soap manufacturers of this country, it developed today that there are two plans before the leading dealers of this city. Charles Scott Johnston, formerly Secretary of the Western Mutual Life Association, is said to be promoting one trust, which will represent a capital stock of $100,000,000. The other represents a capital stock of $25,000,000, and is being promoted by Boston capitalists.

THIEF SHOOTS AT A WOMAN.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4.—A man held up Mrs. E. K. Blades last night within a hundred yards of her doorstep and secured a satchel containing about $30. He fired one shot at her, and the bullet struck a bundle she carried under her arm and failed to go through the bundle, which contained a mackintosh.

Mrs. Blades is the wife of the young attorney, E. K. Blades, who shot and killed himself accidentally while hunting only a few weeks ago. She is now cashier in a restaurant, and has been in the habit of taking the money taken in after banking hours home with her in a satchel at 8 o'clock every night.

A man evidently followed her last night. She turned when he grabbed her from behind, and he fired point-blank at her. She dropped the satchel, and he grabbed it and ran.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Cordelia Botkin was today sentenced to serve the term of her natural life in the San Quentin penitentiary for the murder of Mrs. John P. Dunning of Dover, Del., whom she killed by means of a box of poisoned candy, sent through the mails, as a gift from a friend, and unsuspiciously eaten by Mrs. Dunning and some of her friends. Her sister, Mrs. Joshua P. Deane, also of Dover, died from the effects of the arsenic with which the candies were loaded. Judge Cook, who pronounced the sen-

BREWERS WIN THEIR STRIKE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 4.—The contest between the English syndicate brewery managers and their employees, in effect since 1895, over the method of hiring here, has been settled at a conference of representatives of both parties. As a result the boycott made by the brewery workers' unions against the brewers will be raised, the employers having given in. Managers of the English syndicate breweries objected to hiring men, as presented by an employment bureau in the interest of the brewery workers, without regard to their qualifications. A strike and boycott resulted, and since the trouble began the brewery workers are said to have spent $24,000 in carrying on the fight, aside from the loss of wages. The employers also lost heavily by reason of the boycott.

TAKEN TO THE CITY PRISON.

"Commander" Moore of the "United Mission Army" was brought to the City Jail this morning by Craigie Sharp, who found him collecting money wherever he went. Moore was taken to the jail, where he has been collecting money here before, and some business men say that they thought he represented the local Salvation Army or the Volunteers of America, otherwise they would have given him no recognition. Moore was self-assertive. He claimed he had a right to collect money wherever he wanted to, and furthermore, that he had taken up subscriptions here, in Berkeley, in San Francisco and other places. He showed his book, which indicated that he had done a lively business and asserted that the book would show that the money was used for the relief of people at the "United Mission Army" shelter, 507 Polson street, San Francisco. But the book showed nothing of the kind. In fact, it showed little more than the names of Moore's contributors, not even the date of their subscriptions being given. There was no law known to the police by which Moore could be detained, because, unless it could be proved that the mission in question did not exist, Moore could not be arrested on the charge of receiving money under false pretenses. Moore's presence here has aroused a feeling of antagonism among a number of charitable people, who feel that if he is looking after San Francisco, he ought to be kept out of the city. Moore is said to have been taken to the City Jail, where he has been collecting money here before, and some business men say that they thought he represented the local Salvation Army or the Volunteers of America, otherwise they would have given him no recognition.

CAST-IRON PLANTS IN A HUGE TRUST.

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—The Post today says: One of the largest movements to combine industrial corporations is that which has for its object the consolidation of a number of the most important cast-iron plants of the country. The company was and Foundry Company, and will have a capitalization of $24,000,000, divided into $12,000,000 of 7 per cent non-cumulative preferred, and $12,000,000 of common stock. The combination will be made up of the American Pipe and Foundry Company, Danis, Lond & Co., Addison Pipe and Foundry Company, Lake Shore Foundry Company, Ohio Pipe Company, Buffalo Pipe Company, Metal Pipe and Foundry Company, and National Pipe and Foundry Company. These eight concerns are said to control more than 60 per cent of the total output of cast-iron pipe in the country. More than one-half of the capital stock of the new corporation has been taken by the owners of the plants which it is proposed to consolidate, and $4,000,000 of the remainder has been subscribed.

CHARGES BEFORE THE GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury held a brief session this morning. D. M. Connors, attorney for Thomas Rafferty of Livermore, appeared before the inquisitors and accused Deputy District Attorney Harris of having signed Rafferty's name to a note for $30. Harris, a Mr. Bentick and Marshal Head of Livermore, declared Thomas Rafferty had signed the document himself and on this showing the jury immediately dismissed the charges, completely exonerating Harris. The circumstances which culminated in the charge occurred in Livermore. Some time ago suit was brought by R. P. Smith against Thomas Rafferty to collect $40 on a promissory note. It was stated at the trial that Rafferty was intoxicated at the time the document was presented to him for signature. The note was drawn up in Mr. Harris' office in Pleasanton and signed by him, bringing the matter before the jury, charged that his client did not sign the note at all, but that his signature was placed there by Harris. The Grand Jury absconded with the story of Connors and ignored the charges entirely. In speaking of the matter today, Deputy District Attorney Harris very emphatically denied having placed Rafferty's name on the note. "Such a statement is absolutely malicious, false and unjust," said Harris. "Rafferty signed the note himself, as witnesses are ready to prove. My client and above-board and I defy any one to say differently. The fact that the Grand Jury refused to listen to the charges should be sufficient." Others who know the circumstances declare that the bringing of the charges before the Grand Jury was merely a matter of spite work, with an evident intent to injure Mr. Harris. However, the attempt, if such are the facts, has signally failed.

APPROPRIATION FOR WEST POINT.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The Military Academy appropriation bill was taken by the House today. It carries $200,517, which is considerably less than estimated, but more than recent appropriation bills of this character. Mr. Marsh (R) of Illinois, in charge of the bill, explained that the increased total was due to the needs of renovating the library and furnishing the new Custom House.

DANNY NEEDHAM IS ACCUSED.

William Mullins contractor for the handling of the mails between the post office and the railroad depots, swore out warrants this morning, charging Danny Needham and a man named Conway with robbery. It is alleged that Mullins was deprived of $37 while he was playing cards in a saloon on Washington street, Thursday night. Mullins reported the case to the police. In several different ways, first that he had been robbed next that he had gotten his money back, next that he had not received the money back but that the matter had been "squared." Following these stories, came the swearing to the complaints this morning in which the warrants were issued. Conway, as soon as he learned that there was a warrant out for his arrest, went to the City Hall and gave bonds in the sum of $1,000. Needham was away from home this morning but will return this evening and give bonds. Mullins refused to talk to the newspaper reporters this morning, stating that he did not want any more publicity to be given to the matter, and that he could have it suppressed.

BURGLARS ARE BEHIND BARS.

One of the worst looking specimens of a pugilistic encounter of a head-on pugilist with a rock blast was George Dawson, who appeared in the Police Court this morning after a signal failure to make way with a pair of shoes from the Sears boot and shoe store at the northwest corner of Eighth and Washington streets last night. Dawson was detected in the act by Sears, who pummeled him and threw him into the street. Dawson's blood fell in heavy drops upon the pavement. Dawson's plight brought two pals to his rescue, and with their assistance Dawson made his escape. At the corner of Ninth and Washington streets he slipped and fell, but managed to regain his feet and continue his flight. A crowd of people followed and the patrol wagon joined in the chase. Finally Dawson was found in a cheap lodging house on Seventh street between Franklin and Broadway. The bruised and battered condition of his face was due to the punishment he received last night. His case was continued until the 6th to file a complaint. One of Dawson's pals, named Ernest Colby, was also arrested last night, but his arrest has not yet been recorded in the jail's public register. There is a warrant out for the arrest of another pal of Dawson, Colby, and the two mentioned are wanted for the burglary of a shoe shop Thursday night. Jumped to His Death. Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 4.—A Meyer of Cleveland, Ohio, jumped from a third-story window of the Cannon Hotel here today. # ATTORNEY DOW HAS MADE A GOOD RECORD.

W. A. Dow, City Attorney of Oakland, is able to go before the people for a re-election with a splendid record from his office. The report of his department recently published shows that during his term he has disposed of twenty-one of the city's cases, seventeen of which have been decided favorably to the city. "Of the actions against the city, fourteen were for the recovery of money aggregating $21,075.11, yet during the period covered by his report nothing was recovered from the city by means of said suits. During his administration not one dollar has been expended for special counsel, and no outside attorneys have been engaged to assist him in any of the litigation. Among the numerous important suits successfully conducted by him, and in which able counsel were engaged on the opposing side, may be mentioned the annexation suit, decided in favor of the city in the Superior Court, and now pending on appeal in the Supreme Court; the case of the London and San Francisco Bank vs. the City of Oakland, relating to the opening of Fallon street, decided in favor of the city by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, and many vs. the City of Oakland, involving taxes. "Such a statement is absolutely malicious, false and unjust," said Harris. "Rafferty signed the note himself, as witnesses are ready to prove. My client and above-board and I defy any one to say differently. The fact that the Grand Jury refused to listen to the charges should be sufficient." Others who know the circumstances declare that the bringing of the charges before the Grand Jury was merely a matter of spite work, with an evident intent to injure Mr. Harris. However, the attempt, if such are the facts, has signally failed.

COLORADO ROADS BATTLING WITH THE SNOWSTORMS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. DENVER, Colo., Feb. 4.—The weather is fair to-day, but continues very cold, the minimum temperature in this city last night being 15 degrees below zero. The Denver and Rio Grande and Colorado Midland Railways have redoubled their efforts to open their lines west of Leadville, and through traffic over the Colorado Transcontinental route will probably be resumed to-day or to-morrow at the latest. The Midland terminal road has been cleared, and traffic over this line to Cripple Creek was resumed to-day. The Colorado Southern is making good progress toward reopening its line to Leadville, but the Gunnison line has been abandoned for the present, Gunnison being reached over the Denver and Rio Grande.

SCRAMBLE FOR A FEDERAL PLUM.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—A lively contest is on for the Assistant Commissioner of the General Land Office, which Frank W. Mondell of Wyoming, who has been elected to Congress, will vacate on March 4th. Ex-Governor Richards of Wyoming, who has the advantage of geographical location and of familiarity with the land office work through many years' experience as Surveyor General of the State, has been urged on the President for appointment, and is strongly backed. Ex-Representative Anderson of Tennessee, formerly chief clerk of the General Office, is among the other candidates.

Imprisonment for Debt

The bill now in the hands of our lawmakers at Sacramento, would never have been introduced, had it not been found that merchants lose thousands of dollars a year in bad debts. You who trade with credit-giving stores, and pay your bills, have to pay an extra price to cover these losses. Pay for what you buy when you buy it—and, be you rich or poor, you will save money by so doing. This however can only be true in a strictly cash store—like The Face House.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1920.

Aguinaldo and his forces will find that they have bumped up against an entirely different proposition to the comparatively easy game they had when they attacked the Spanish troops. The "dictator" will soon discover that he has reached the last chapter of his little speaking part.

Mrs. Botkin has but one satisfaction left, and that is that she did not have to go to Delaware to be tried. Had she done so she would probably be awaiting her turn on the scaffold for this time instead of facing a life imprisonment that is sure to result in a pardon in after years.

The evidence of prosperity keeps piling up. The receipts at the National Treasury for the first half of the present fiscal year are over $52,000,000 more than during the same period of 1919. The Democrats will have a hard time getting an issue to go before the people in the next Presidential campaign.

It is not surprising that some of the Senatorial candidates at Sacramento are getting cold feet. The frost that has been prevalent during the past few days throughout this part of the State appears to have extended to their contests, judging by the rumors that are drifting down from the Capital City.

The wrecking of the Union Savings Bank of San Jose appears to have been caused by gambling with the funds instead of investing them. Although great profits might have resulted to the bank from the joint speculation indulged in by Wright and his associates, still their action was criminal to the highest degree, for they had no right to expose the money of others to the great risks that were being run. The melting out of gold, still punishment to the bank-wreckers would probably have a beneficial effect in deterring others from engaging in any but legitimate lines of investment. Depositors who are at the absolute mercy of those to whom they entrust their funds must be protected, no matter who suffers.

OUR INSURGENT SENATORS.

Now for a glance at home. It is here that we see the worst and the most treacherous and the least excusable insurgents. The greatest enemies against the peace and dignity and welfare of the United States at the present moment are in the United States Senate chamber. There are to be found, and named, the responsible authors of the sacrifice of America's generous defenders that has just taken place near Manila, and of the pitiable slaughter of natives by the hundreds that has come from our rifles and from the shells of our navy. This woeful bloodshed lies at the door, upon the heads, of the filibusters and palterers and obstructionists in the United States Senate.

The nation has had timely warnings of these results, from the brave and patient Dewey. Now we have their fulfillment. Even his race leniency and diplomacy could not forever put off the inevitable consequences of the convulsion of councils in our highest legislative body, so-called, upon the untutored minds of the Philippines, and upon the crafty ambitions of their leader, Aguinaldo. There is all excuse for them, and some for him. There is none for those traitors, who are masking under the name of humanity and conscientious scruples in our Senate.

By their failure to ratify the treaty of peace with Spain, procured at so great cost of lives and of treasure, these obstructionists, mainly Democrats, who are casting about for an issue in the next Presidential campaign, aided, we grieve to say, by a few Republican transcendentalists, have put it into the hands of the poor Filipinos, by nature a loving, friendly, easy-going race, to hurl themselves upon the authority and might of the United States. If the ghastly events of the past two days shall have taught them a lesson, how much more should it have taught a lesson to those worse than honest insurgents, these traitors who are skulking under cover of their Senatorial robes.

ACTION IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Lamentable as the clash of arms at Manila is, doubtless it has come at the most opportune time, in the best way and with the best possible results. It had to come. If it were done, it were well it were done quickly. It comes at the instance of Aguinaldo's misled followers, and not from any initial demonstration on the part of the United States forces. On the contrary, throughout a long and trying test of their patience, the officers and troops of the American army have controlled themselves with a degree of endurance that affords the highest proofs of courage. The fortitude of the American soldier has been shown as signally under this prolonged period of waiting under suspense and provocation as in any of the recent achievements by sea and land that have so won the admiration of the world.

Our military authorities at Manila, reinforced by the incomparable Dewey, have seen to it that this encounter, since it must come, has been made a decisive one. It has been of a character to teach the deluded assassins of the American authority a lesson that they cannot forget. Their repulse was at a fearful present cost, it is true. Yet, it is apparent that this was the most humane policy, and will spare much bloodshed and other losses in the end.

An item in this event worthy of note by this State and by the nation is the fact that, here as recently heretofore, the troops of California have borne the brunt of the struggle and of the American losses. While this distinction cannot fail to quicken the pride of our people in their sons, whom they have sent to the protection of the nation's new frontier in the Orient, it also must draw our State and section into still closer bonds of sympathy with all other parts of the Union. It emphasizes the new fact in our national evolution that the Pacific Coast is no longer a frontier, but one of the main centers of the national development and defense.

BREAKFAST TABLE TRUST.

The latest news from the plutonian regions of Chicago is the organization of an oatmeal combine. A consolidation has been effected. It is stated, of virtually all the manufacturers in this country of breakfast foods, so-called, to control the output and the prices. The trust has a capital of $30,000,000. To control some ten or more and is to comprise some ten or more concerns engaged in the work of making the American public eat at their morning meal what is good for them.

This news, perhaps, is not so disquieting as at first thought it seems. A long-suffering American public, indulged in by Wright and his associates, still their action was criminal to the highest degree, for they had no right to expose the money of others to the great risks that were being run. The melting out of gold, still punishment to the bank-wreckers would probably have a beneficial effect in deterring others from engaging in any but legitimate lines of investment. Depositors who are at the absolute mercy of those to whom they entrust their funds must be protected, no matter who suffers.

No such heroic measures are now demanded. All that we need to do is to throw away the fancy casing and the high-flown label and take our morning oatmeal straight, as it comes from the hand of nature and the farmer and the grist mill. No trust can corner oats, whatever it may be able to do with ten or a dozen mercantile sophistications of the savory and nutritious cereal. Indeed, if need be, we can raise our oats in the back garden and mortar them on the front stoop, each one for himself, and thus put the super-servicable middleman to the winds. It is the husk, not the kernel, in this instance that monopoly has grasped.

We can let the monopolist have the chaff, while we stick to the true grain. Our breakfast table, so far as this assault is concerned, is safe. So, too, is our authorized breakfast staple. We shall have no need to revise our accepted medical and hygienic theories, nor to come to the conclusion that soft foods, as mush and porridge, discourage the salivary glands and weaken, by disuse, the teeth. We still may calmly and imperturbably recall the anecdote where, when old Dr. Johnson growled out his definition of oats, "a grain used in England by horses and in Scotland by men," the Scotchman retorted, "And where else can you find such fine horses as in England and such men as in Scotland?"

The big exposition across the bay in 1901 seems now assured, and means untold advantages to Alameda county if it goes through all right. As it will be conducted on a scale about four times as great as that of the Midwinter Fair, it will attract thousands of visitors from all over the country, who can easily be induced to take a trip over here if we do the right kind of advertising. To get them in our midst is half the battle, for most of our attractions speak with golden tongues for themselves.

An indication of the extravagant methods employed by the Standard Oil Company in order to preserve its monopoly is given in one instance developed by the investigation now in progress in Ohio. The evidence in question shows that the manager of a small rival refinery was given $1,000 a month for ten years to close up his place, and thereby deprive the people of the benefits of competition. A trust of this description is a hard one to crush, but some means should be found of routing it, for the constant increase of these monopolies is becoming more of a menace to our republic than could the aggrandizement of an aristocracy under monarchical rule.

France is said to be planning an invasion of England. If Napoleon made a failure of it in the days when he was in the zenith of his military glory it is not very likely that much could come of such a project now, in view of the internecine dissensions that have almost endangered the life of the republic. France is evidently talking big in order to conceal her actual weakness.

The Spanish Cabinet has decided to abolish the portfolio of Minister of the Colonies, there no longer being any work for such an official, which brings to mind the fact that such a dignitary will be needed in our own Cabinet if the peace treaty goes through—here's a chance for some ambitious office-seeker.

Our California boys at Manila are doubtless glad now that their appeals to be allowed to come home were not granted. The glory they sought when they enlisted is now within their reach, and nothing is surer than that they will get it.

The Populists will put their ticket in the field tonight. The more the merrier, for with the Republicans it is a case of united they stand, whereas all the other elements, being so much divided, will fall.

GEN. WADE AN EXPANSIONIST.

Sees Nothing but Good as the Result of the War.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

CHICAGO, February 6.—In referring to the situation in Cuba, Brigadier General James A. Wade, who is en route to St. Paul, where he goes to take command of the Department of the Dakotas, which position he held previous to going to Cuba, said: "I do not think the United States need anticipate any trouble there. Gomez's last communication to the President, accepting the terms offered by this country, practically settled it, as far as the insurgents are concerned. The benefits which will result to this country through the war will be enormous, and, I believe, have generally been underestimated. I do not think there can be more firmly in the policy of territorial expansion. I do not think that the increase of the standing army to 100,000 will give us one more soldier than we need."

While he showed the dispatches from Manila, giving an account of the attack upon the American forces there by the insurgents, General Wade said: "Well, that looks like business. Of course, there is nothing left to do now but fight, and I don't think there can be any doubt as to the result. Of course, it is greatly to be regretted that hostilities have commenced, but it certainly does not seem to have been the fault of the Americans. I suppose the Filipinos thought from our apparent unwillingness to fight that we were afraid of them. They probably have discovered their error."

CAPITALIZATION OF TOBACCO TRUST.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 4.—The Union Tobacco Company of America, of New York City, to-day filed with the Secretary of State an increase of capital from $19,300,000 to $24,000,000. The capital is divided into 12,000,000 common and 12,000,000 preferred stock. The preferred stock at 6 per cent is non-cumulative dividend paying. This corporation was incorporated a few days ago by the consolidation of the United American Tobacco Company and the North American Commercial Company.

Episcopal Bishops Adjourn.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 4.—The Council of Episcopal Bishops has closed its sessions and the bishops have returned to their respective sees. The Denver controversy, a conflict of authority between Bishop Spaulding of Denver and his dean, the Rev. Dr. Hart, was not adjusted. Another meeting of the bishops will be held February 21st, to solve this problem.

NUCLEUS OF A SHOCKING MIGHTY TRUST.
Great Corliss Engine Works Sold to a Syndicate.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The Times says: The transfer of the Corliss Steam Engine Works at Providence, R. I., to a syndicate of capitalists was the first step in the formation of a combination which will include all the great engine-making concerns in this country. The Corliss works were not, however, secured directly by the syndicate, as stated, although several members of the latter are interested in the new venture, and the Air Power Company may join the new combination.

J. H. Hoadley said that the syndicate which purchased the Corliss Works is composed of several bankers and business men in this city, Boston and Philadelphia, and that the Grampsons hold the largest interest in it. He admitted that both Richard Croker and himself were largely interested in the venture. "The property is not outright," he said. "The Corliss Works are held in trust, and the syndicate is to make very much difference whether they sell out or not, but the probability is that they will all come in."

"The president of the new company will be Colonel D. M. Thompson of Providence. The treasurer will be Edgar S. Grampson, the shipbuilder, who is president of the Greene and Wheelock Steam Engine Company; Lewis Nixon, W. H. Knight, former chief engineer of the General Electric Company, now chief engineer of the American Air Power Company, and Charles A. Lieb, owner of the Washington (D. C.) railways and electric lighting plants. Each of the companies lighting plants. Each of the companies lighting plants. Each of the companies lighting plants."

The Corliss works, and the Greene and Wheelock factories will probably begin the running in conjunction with the new plant in the world and employ about 1,300 men. The company has just secured a contract from the Boston Elevated Railway Company for the largest steam engine ever built. It will weigh some 7,000 lbs. and its horse power will be 7,000. Some idea of the size of it can be gathered when it is remembered that the horse power of the famous Corliss Centennial engine, which is now being dismantled at the Pullman car works at Birmmham, is only 1,400.

HE HAD MANY NARROW ESCAPES.

Thomas Smith Nearly Lost His Life Twice in One Day.

Thomas Smith of 1534 Willow street, Alameda, seems to have been born under a lucky star. Despite numerous hair breadth escapes he still lives to tell the story of his adventures. Yesterday two mishaps befell him, either of which might have cost him his life. However, he escaped from both with only a few bruises and scratches.

Yesterday Smith walked off a swiftly moving local train, falling under the wheels, sustaining several wounds and abrasions. He limped to the nearest water, which was the bay, to wash the wounds. While performing the operation he became dizzy help were heard. Water. His car was from drowning just in time. He was brought to the Receiving Hospital where his wounds were dressed by Drs. Sanborn and Keyes.

While at the Hospital, Smith told stories of his numerous escapes from death. On one occasion he was struck by a train and hurled into the air for a distance of forty feet. He picked himself up and getting on his horse rode the hundred miles to a doctor. Smith is a veteran of the Civil War having served under General Sherman. He exhibited several scars on his body, and had been hit by bullets. He also said he had been pulled out of a burning building in Indian fighting with Buffalo Bill.

Smith stated that of course the salt water of the bay smacked his wounds when he washed them with it but the pain was nothing like he experienced on one occasion when he had to extract an Indian arrow from his jaw after a fight.

The Rhyland Floated.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. PHILADELPHIA, Penn., Feb. 4.—The steamer Rhyland, which went ashore on Cotton Patch Shoals on Tuesday night, was floated at 1 o'clock this morning. With the exception of the damage to her rudder and her propeller, she is apparently in as good condition as when she went aground. She was towed to this city by the tug which pulled her from her bed of sand.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—One murder and two attempts which will prove fatal is the criminal history of San Francisco for the past twenty-four hours. Today Adolph Smith, an ex-convict, was found fatally wounded in a cheap lodging house on the outskirts of Chinatown. He had been beaten and cut into insensibility with a hatchet, presumably by highlanders or race track roustabouts with the intention of robbery.

Smith was released from San Quentin Penitentiary five weeks ago, after having served a seven year sentence for robbing a sailor. Since his release he has received sums of money from Germany, and has been spending it freely, having taken care to hide his whereabouts. Last night he was shot by another ex-convict, who visited a pool table at a saloon on the race track. The bullet passed through the man's chest, and he was taken to the hospital. Smith's friend, who was with him at the time, was also wounded.

Smith, almost dead, was found in his room today. He had been shot eleven times with a bullet which passed through the center of his chest, the bullet, the brains protruding. Another blow crashed through the back of the left eye in two. Both wounds had been broken. There is no doubt, though it is supposed that he was killed by race track people, and had been shot by some highlander whom he had wronged in some manner, possibly robbery.

W. S. Farley, the secretary of the Pacific States Bank, was shot by Chris Bates, the son of the Treasurer of this city and county, for having called Bates a fool, is now believed to have an even chance for his life. The doctors will make an attempt to save him today to locate the bullet and examine the internal injuries by means of the X-ray.

Luigi Piccoli, a barber, killed his partner, Manuel Silva, last night and then stabbed himself seriously. The men quarreled over money matters. Emanuel Silva, the barber who killed his partner last night and then cut his own throat, died today.

WATCHMAN IS SHOT BY CRACKSMEN.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LEIPZIG, Ohio, Feb. 4.—Early today three burglars gained entrance to the postoffice here and dynamited the safe. The night watchman, Peter Bowman, discovered the cracksmen just after the explosion, and opened fire on them. The burglars returned the fire, but eventually escaped. Bowman was shot twice through the leg. It is understood the cracksmen got about $200 in money and $500 in stamps. The authorities are hot on their trail.

GREENWOOD MAY BE LIBRARIAN.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. KANSAS CITY, Feb. 4.—Superintendent J. M. Greenwood of the Kansas City public schools has been suggested by friends as a candidate for the office of Librarian of Congress to succeed John Russell Young, recently deceased. These friends insist that as Mr. Greenwood is eminently qualified by training and taste for the position, and as he is a native of Missouri, he is the best person to represent the state of Missouri in the office of Librarian of Congress. The movement to make him a candidate is growing. Mr. Greenwood is well known among educators.

FOUND HIS LONG LOST LEATHER TRUNK.

A trunk is a strange thing for a man to lose, but that is just what Peter Lang lost about six months ago and on the streets of this city. The missing receptacle was restored to him this morning at the city jail.

The trunk was a leather contrivance of foreign manufacture and was brought to this city by the owner, in August last. It was picked up by Officer Hyman. Its finding was noticed in the daily papers but no owner came to claim it.

At length Captain Wilson pried the lid open and found papers, letters and other documents addressed to "Peter Lang" and evidently in the Danish language. The address was evidently registered at Alvarado. Inquiry was made at that place concerning the missing man. It was learned that he had moved to Crockett, Contra Costa county. Letters were sent thither, but no response was received. Finally, unexpectedly, Lang presented himself at the Police Court this morning, receipted for the prize and bore it away in a contented frame of mind. Lang, in explaining the episode, said that he had the trunk with him when he left Alvarado, but how he lost it here he has not the remotest idea.

WILLIAM WILL SWING THE AX.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

BERLIN, Feb. 4.—Emperor William, speaking at the annual banquet last night of the Brandenburg Diet, said: "The Hohenzollerns have always considered themselves responsible. God is responsible for their acts, and a sense of responsibility to the people has also been inherited by every Hohenzollern."

"When I stood on the Mount of Olives, I renewed the oath taken to the colors not to leave a stone unturned to assure the welfare of the people."

His Majesty recalled Marshal Von Moltke's words to Prince Bismarck, after the Franco-German war. "Now is the time to do the tree grow," and said: "I will be a good gardener to the tree of the German empire, tending off the branches which impede its growth and extirpating obnoxious root-grawers."

Several efforts being made to maintain peace, and declared that Germany "must not attempt to disturb the peace."

He added: "Peace must be preserved at home and abroad, and the people of the Mark of Brandenburg, above all, must lend me their help to do so."

He majestically concluded with calling for cheers for the Mark of Brandenburg and its inhabitants.

A BROOKLYN WOMAN TO BE ELECTROCUTED.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SING SING, N. Y., Feb. 4.—Warden Sage today notified Mrs. Martha Place, the Brooklyn murderess, that the Court of Appeals had refused to grant her a new trial, and that she would have to meet death in the electric chair during the week beginning March 20th.

ATTITUDE OF GOMEZ BOOMS BUSINESS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. HAVANA, Feb. 4.—Values on the local Bourse and general business confidence were revived yesterday by the exclusive news of the Associated Press from Remedios of General Maximino Gomez's acceptance of the proposition of Robert P. Porter, President McKinley's special commissioner, made for the payment of the Cuban army.

LITTLE WORK IN THE SENATE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. SACRAMENTO, Feb. 4.—In the Senate Braunhardt's bill No. 17, requiring brakes to be placed on street cars, was lost. Braunhardt changed his vote and gave notice to move to reconsider.

Senate bill No. 137, introduced by Dickinson, repealing an act entitled, "An act authorizing the allowance, settlement and payment of claims of families against the estate" was read the third time and passed.

When a man is struck down by a poisoned arrow tipped with the venom of serpents, he knows that his time has come. Death is only a question of moments; but not one man in a thousand realizes that when a little evil bile gets into his blood his whole system is being poisoned just as truly as if a venom-tipped arrow was sticking in his vitals.

Rattlesnake poison is a good deal quicker than bile-poison, but the latter will do just as deadly a work. It keeps on accumulating in the system. Probably two-thirds of the cases that end in consumption begin with "liver complaint" and "acidigestion." These troubles could never get as far as consumption if Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was used before the bile-poisoning got fairly under way. This remarkable "Discovery" invigorates the torpid liver and gives it power to filter the poison out of the system rapidly and thoroughly.

It strengthens the digestive fluids and enables them to do their work of purifying blood; it builds up healthy muscle, steady nerve force and enduring strength.

The experience of Mr. Val Burkard, living at 65 Mohr Ave., Buffalo, N. Y., is a good illustration of the power of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and also two bottles of the "Discovery" and he is now a healthy man. My appetite increased wonderfully and I have also gained flesh. I would like to know the name of Dr. Pierce's medicine, as I am confident by persistent use they cure all ailments for which they are without a reliable doctor's help. Send 21 one-cent stamps for Dr. Pierce's two-page "Common Sense Medical Adviser" to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. A heavier cloth-bound volume 31 stamps.
